Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-001378

Dear Claire Hartley:

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on May 8, 2023, in which you seek all records in Monogram Health, Case No. 28-RC-310256. You did not assume financial responsibility for the processing of your request.

We acknowledged your request on May 8, 2023. In a voicemail message on May 18, 2023, you agreed to exclude Exhibit H, which is a voter list.

After conducting a search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have confirmed that the requested case is a recently filed, open case being investigated by the Agency's Region 28 office. As such, I have determined that certain case file records responsive to your request are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Therefore, given the open status of the requested case, pending investigation in the Region, any investigatory records in the case file are withheld in full, and will continue to be, pursuant to Exemption 7(A) while the case remains open.

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the formal records in the requested case file, which include the specifically requested petition, initial letters to the petitioner and the employer, a post hearing brief, and the brief's exhibits other than Exhibit H. The formal records in the file are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations regardless of the open/closed status of the case.

Please note that the Exemption 7(A) protection is "temporal in nature." Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep't of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, certain case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, a certification of results has issued, a bargaining representative has been certified, or the matter is otherwise closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/28-RC-310256>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category D, the “all other requesters” category, because you do not fall within any of the other fee categories. Consistent with this fee category, you will be assessed charges to recover the reasonable direct costs for searching for the requested records, except that you will not be charged for the first two hours of search. NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(D). Charges for all categories of requesters are $9.25 per quarter hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Less than two hours of professional time was expended in searching for the requested material. Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact Joseph Mullaney, the Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-3863 or by email at Joseph.Mullaney@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the FOIA Public Liaison is:
